Asseveration Before the Most High God:

I, _____, solemnly asseverate I cannot make any oath whatsoever, nor can I testify other than an aye, aye or nay nay, for it is written:

"But I say to you, never swear; neither by heaven, because it is God's throne; Nor by the earth, for it is a stool under his feet; nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great king. Neither shall you swear by your own head, because you cannot create it in a single black or white hair. But let your words be yes, yes, and no, no; for anything which adds to these is deception." Matthew 5:34-37.

"But above all things, my brethren, do not swear, neither by heaven, neither by earth, neither by any other oath; but let your words be yes, yes, and no, no, lest you fall under condemnation." James 5:12.

"These are the things that you shall do: Speak the truth everyone to his neighbor; execute the truth, justice and peace in your gates; And let none of you devise evil in your heart against his neighbor; and love no false oaths; for all these are things that I hate, says the LORD of hosts." Zechariah 8:17-17

"Therefore you must put away from you lying and speak the truth, every man with his neighbor; for we are members of one another." Ephesians 4:25.

to support first: the revealed Divine Law of the Most High God, to support second: the principles of "Peace and Righteousness" at all times as introduced by Melchizedek to Abraham, and finally to support third: the Constitution of the Republic of New Lemuria [to the extent the Constitution or its application is not in contradiction to the foregoing revealed Divine Law of the Most High God and the principles of "Peace and Righteousness";.

I _____ solemnly asseverate before the Most High God I shall faithfully discharge the duties of a lawyer, attorney and counselor at law with fidelity to the best of my knowledge and ability.

I, _____ acknowledge this filed with the Office of the Governor. I further acknowledge that in the event I am accepted by this Application without formal written examination, I will obtain copies of the following documents and books:
